help but hear the influences that shaped his sound: everyone from Kenny Chesney, Kracker and many others had a hand in shaping someone who, in the end, has started playing guitar at about 8 yrs old from watching all of his brothers and sisters play. His father, was a great fiddle player and had a great influence on him for the music. His mother was a great singer around the house.

“I do not remember a time when there wasn’t music around the old homestead. As a family we would performed in public for local festivals and Garden parties. I had my own band by age 18 and I Started writing in 2008 and had some of my songs produced in 2010 in Nashville?”

In 2012, Al was nominated by The Indie Music Channel for two awards: Best Male Country Artist and Best Recording (for Hot Pink Lady). On April 29, 2013 Al again attended The Indie Music Channel Awards in Hollywood where he won two industry awards: Best Country Recording for China White and Best Country Producer for It’s Saturday Night. He also received a certificate for being nominated for Best Album. Check out their interview with him HERE.

Later in 2012, Al returned to Nashville to record a new set of songs which resulted in Al Brake, his new CD, produced by industry-renowned Producer/Engineer Bob Bullock and a studio band second to none (including Mike Chapman/Bass, John Willis/Acoustic Guitar, Banjo, Chris Leuzinger/Lead Guitar, Mark Casstevens/Acoustic Guitar, Mandolin, Gary Prim/Piano, Organ, Sonnv Garrish/Dobro, Thom Flora (MORE HERE)/Backing Vocals and Lonnie Wilson/Drums).

At age 40, Al is blessed with a great wife and 4 great kids who love to watch him play.

“It is great to see the passion be passed on in my children”!
