RADIO SUBMIT RECOMMENDS TARA LINDA !

Put your boots on and get ready for the Muses, Dust Devils and Demons of Tara Linda' s desert world. A refreshing blend of Spaghetti Western, Tex-Mex, and rock, sung by torch singer Tara Linda, this is contemporary roots music telling stories of the American Southwest. Well crafted songs that are wayward and whipsmart.

With airplay on over 250 stations in 15 countries , Tortilla Western Serenade released to critical acclaim & voted "FAR and Away" Best Debut albums of 2010 [Freeform American Roots Chart, Austin TX] reacheding # 12 on the national Roots Music Report; # 17 on the Euro-Americana Charts, and # 16 on FAR Charts.

Featured Musicians include legendary 5-time Grammy winner Flaco Jiménez [accordion], Max Baca of 2010 Grammy winners Los Texmaniacs [bajo sexto], Al Gomez of the West Side Horns [trumpet], Bobby Flores [steel guitar, violin, viola]. Hohner-endorsed Tara Linda plays accordion and percussion.

- San Antonio Express-News: "Tara Linda seduces like a siren…and like a poet, thelyrics challenge and enchant."
- Popmatters: "swaggering and delicate...defiant, coy, vulnerable and sassy"
- Real Roots Cafe, Netherlands: "We enjoyed the beautiful, sultry voice of Tara Linda...Great fun and festive music. What atmosphere! What fun! What a nice variety!"
- Muses Muse: "Tara's expressive vocals are framed perfectly by this band of all-stars. ...sultry..spicy..brisk accordion and soulful violin, conjures up visions of sleepy, dusty desert towns with endless blue skies and cantinas that serve very cold beer. 10/10"
- CtrlAlt.Country, Belgium: "Majestic Soundscapes"

Produced by: Max Baca, Craig Schumacher (Devotchka, Neko Case, Calexico) & Tara Linda. Self released on Physalia Records.
