Last Bird Home , the definitive album by Rustbelt Americana artist Chris Castle , has spent the past eleven weeks in the Top 20 at both the RMR's Roots Country Chart and the Roots 66 Chart. The record has peaked thus far at #5 on the Roots Music Report , #7 at Roots 66, and #26 on both the AMA Internet and Freeform American Roots (FAR) Charts.

Featuring eleven of Castle's strongest songs to date, the album was recorded and mixed in late Summer of 2011 at Levon Helm Studios (Woodstock, NY) by Grammy-winning engineer Justin Guip (Levon Helm, Hot Tuna). It features performances by: Garth Hudson (the Band), Tommy Ramone (the Ramones), Larry Campbell (Bob Dylan), Maud Hudson, Gabriel Butterfield (son of Blues legend Paul Butterfield), and the Womack Family Band , among others.

Misc. Quotes:

"Chris Castle sings his unique songs of depth and beauty with a voice well textured by life's experiences."

Tommy Ramone (the Ramones, Uncle Monk)

"A tunesmith of almost scary vision, narrative acumen and hooky instinct... writing songs is utterly programmed into his DNA."

Rick Koster (The Day)

"An authentic connection to the world-weary soul of American roots music."

Jim Vickers (Cleveland Magazine)

"Dirty Water sounds like the ghost of Hank Williams rising from the Ohio River like an angry, hillbilly, Godzilla"

Joe Linstrum (Folk Alley)
