Born in Los Angeles, California, Lejay Styles began his musical journey at the tender age of seven when his aunt gave him a clarinet. Shortly after learning the clarinet, Styles started playing the saxophone. Music has been and continues to be the center of his life.

Styles is a born again Christian who has continually focused all of his God-given talent towards spreading the Good News of the Gospel.

This talented artist is amazing with vocal abilities and songwriting skills that many call phenomenal. Combining old school R&B with new school rhythms and the word of God, Styles flair for Gospel music is truly incredible.

A veteran singer at a number of local events and crusades in southern California and Las Vegas, NV, Styles' has also performed at local churches, fairgrounds, access cable programs, the celebrity center, and at a political event with Councilman Bernard Parks, the former LA Chief of Police.

Inspired by the well known Gospel show host Dr. Bobby Jones, Lejay Styles has hosted and produced his own LA based Comcast cable access program 'The Gospel Styles Show.'

His debut solo album 'Just Reaching Out' was independently released and filled with powerful messages of truth. That debut CD has touched and impacted the lives of countless. Styles followed that success when he signed his first music contract with Tate Music Group to release the anticipated sophomore project, '7 Days of Praise'.
