A native of Buffalo, NY, now lives in Nashville, TN.

His debut album "Put The Top Down" garnered airplay across the country on AAA & Americana stations as well as blues podcasts throughout the UK.

Bill is following up the effort with a string of new singles starting with "Another Dead End" which incorporates a unique blend of traditional blues with acoustic folk.

"I've been listening to a lot of Ray Wylie Hubbard and Hayes Carll lately which has greatly influenced my writing and recording. Looking forward to sharing more throughout the coming months!
