Elliot's third solo release, Late August Moon, is a study in the craft of indie rock and a demonstration of honest art. The record was done in a lo-fi fashion on a Tascam Portastudio and features guitar and synth heavy productions of well developed songs with strong hooks and great vocal and guitar performances.

Elliot lives in Chicago and has been in music since age five at the Suzuki School. He has played with some of the best musicians and producers in the business and has spent time working at Sony, TVE, Roadrunner and Billboard. He was the former lead guitar player in NYC punk outfit Odd Zero.

So far, singles on Late August Moon include the title track, "Killing With Swords," "Hard to be Honest," "A Thousand Years" and "Wild Animals." The record is starting to get spins worldwide and alt rock fans are getting their first taste of this very cool record.
