Hat Check Girl is the collaboration between two seasoned performers; Annie Gallup and Peter Gallway. Cold Smoke, their seventh release as a duo, is a collection of thirteen songs with historical subtext –some are fictional tales told against an historical backdrop, and others are accounts of actual events. Peter and Annie share vocals and instrumentation, and are joined by award winning fiddler Deirdre Wood Becher, from the bands Celtic Spring and Hidden Fifth.

Peter Gallway emerged from the Greenwich Village scene of the 60's and had released three albums on Warner/Reprise by the time he was twenty-five. He subsequently put out over a dozen more recordings on various independent labels. As a producer he's been involved in more than fifty albums including the Grammy-nominated Bleecker Street: Greenwich Village in the '60s (Chrissie Hynde, Jonatha Brooke), and Time and Love: The Music of Laura Nyro (Suzanne Vega, Jane Siberry). His most recent solo recording is Feels Like Religion (2017).

Annie Gallup is the winner of numerous songwriting awards, including Kerrville New Folk. She grew up in Ann Arbor, Michigan, immersed in the arts. By the time she recorded her first album in 1994, she had internalized a songwriting style all her own that evolved from her fascination with country blues, her love of words, and a dancer's sense of rhythm. Her eleventh solo recording, Lucy Remembers Her Father, was released in May of 2017.

Hat Check Girl is the collaboration between two seasoned performers; Annie Gallup and Peter Gallway. Two Sides to Every Story, their sixth release as a duo, is a collection of ten songs, written in pairs, collected in five chapters, with interludes and an epilogue. Peter and Annie share vocals and instrumentation, and are joined by Jerry Marotta (Peter Gabriel, Indigo Girls, Elvis Costello), on drums and percussion.

Peter Gallway emerged from the Greenwich Village scene of the 60's and had released three albums on Warner/Reprise by the time he was twenty-five. He subsequently put out over a dozen more recordings on various independent labels. As a producer he's been involved in more than fifty albums including the Grammy-nominated Bleecker Street: Greenwich Village in the '60s (Chrissie Hynde, Jonatha Brooke), and Time and Love: The Music of Laura Nyro (Suzanne Vega, Jane Siberry).

By the time she recorded her first album in 1994, she had internalized a songwriting style all her own that evolved from her fascination with country blues, her love of words, and a dancer's sense of rhythm. Her eleventh solo recording, Lucy Remembers Her Father, is scheduled for release in the spring of 2017.

Hat Check Girl, the collaboration between veteran songwriters Annie Gallup and Peter Gallway, began performing as a band in 2009, and released their first CD, Tenderness, in 2010. They were selected as official showcase artists at OCFE conference in Ottawa, Ontario, in 2010, and at the FAR-West (Folk Alliance Region West) conference in Irvine, California in 2011. Their album Goodbye Butterfield placed at #3 on Roots Music Report Contemporary Folk Album Chart in 2014. Their 5th recording, at 2 in the morning, a collection of songs exploring themes of connection, showcases the band's trademark literate songwriting, spooky ambiance, and hypnotic delivery.
