Kimberly Horton

Biographical Sketch

Since the age of three, Dr. Kimberly Horton has had a song in her heart. As the only alto in a singing, family of six, she held down the alto part alone while singing with her two sisters and her mother, who sang soprano, her brother, a tenor, and her father who sang bass. She has sung throughout her life, having performed at the Crystal Cathedral in Garden Grove, Ca; and has shared her music with audiences of thousands. Her music has been broadcast on radio and television. Dr. Horton has blessed the hearts of many with her calm and soothing style.

Dr. Horton released her first musical recording in April 2008 entitled "Music from my Heart", a compilation of original songs and hymns (produced and arranged by Michael Hudson) that speak of her journey and submission to God's will in her life, and to living the life that God has chosen for her. In 2009, she teamed up with composer and producer Monty Jackson and completed her sophomore CD entitled "A Place for You". This project is a musical recognition of moments when you feel God's presence in your life. When you see Him working in areas you know you have no control. Those moments when in spite of your fears, your doubts and your challenges, you know that God, in His almighty wisdom, has carved a path for you; a path that will lead you to a place; a unique and special place God has prepared for you.

Dr. Horton has received numerous awards and commendations for her community service work. She has founded and is CEO of Journey to a Dream Foundation, a non-profit organization that provided educational scholarships and support for teen parents assisting them in completing college degrees. These musical projects provide financial support for this foundation. God has truly worked through her to provide hope, vision, and a future for teen parents.
