Melanie Rose Dyer's new CD "The Long Way Around" recorded in Nashville over the last three years, has been a lifetime in the making. Tracked with a requested "live" sound and bringing in some of Nashville's top guns to show off her distinguishable voice...this is no typical Music Row production. In a style that abounds with hope, heart, and soul she delivers a heady distillation of original roots rock and R&b flavored "real life" songs.

Co-produced by Dyer and Daniel Cooper on her own Sugarplum Records Dyer is surrounded by a stellar supporting cast including Grammy award winning session leader Glen Duncan on acoustic guitar, Jack Pearson (Allman Bros. )on slide and resonator guitar), Mike Durham (Dave Matthews Band)on electric guitar, Jim Horn (The Beatles, The Beachboys etc.) on saxophone, Mark Prentice (Felix Cavaliere, Hootie and the Blowfish) and Don Kerce on bass, Tim Lauer and Charles Judge (Keith Urban, Carrie Underwood) on keyboards and B3, Carole Rabinowitz on cello, and Paul Scholten on drums. This richly layered,( poignant while at the same time rousing) music explores life's universal textures and emotions. Shaun Murphy(Little Feat, Bob Seger, Joe Walsh) lends back-up vocals on four songs, while long time friend and phenome singer Vickie Carrico along with Daniel Cooper and Barbara Thompson round out the soundscape. Music lovers can rejoice this vastly believable collection of all original songs.

Melanie Rose Dyer's "The Long Way Around" tells the truth...and gives it a groove.
