About:

Ted ' Teddy J' Tosoff Vocals/Guitars/Voodoo Magic' Old enough to know better....older than I'd wish to share. Along with family and friends, music is my Lifeblood. I guess, for me...this thing called The Blue Voodoo is a musical soul-cleansing and the sum of all I have done.

'Rick 'the devil' Dalgarno Vocals/Guitar/Voodoo Magic' Arrived April 20, 1968 Right from my first Beatles record, Sgt. Pepper ( the one that my dad played over and over again ), I knew I'd want to be involved in music. I have been a part of many musical projects, but none have captured the essence that The Blue Voodoo manages to do.

Gerry "B" Berg -Bass voodoo magic. This group personifies everything there is about what I love about the blues and music. Having to keep it all in check and playing bass is my passion. These guys are world-class players and are so much fun to gig with. This is a dream of mine working for such a class act.

Mike Michalkow Percussion. Its great to be playing the blues again. My career started over 20 years ago listening and playing the blues. Performing and playing with the BlueVoodoo has been great, the guys in the band are Top notch Players with great attitudes and awesome songwriting skills, Long Live The BLUES!

The Blue Voodoo have opened for:

Bo Diddley, Anthony Gomez Coco Montoya and Sean Costella in January 2007. Among the other luminaries they have worked for at the Yale have been Leon Russell, Janiva Magness and Alvin Young Blood Hart in 2005 as well as Marcia Ball and Otis Taylor in 2004. Special moments: They performed for Joni Mitchell at her 60th Birthday party by her request. Songs have been featured in Movies and TV Shows such Sister Blue Movie and Robson Arms
