Yamit and The Vinyl Blvd is the Jazz ensemble brainchild of vocalist and violinist Yamit Lemoine. Elegant, classy and glamorous, the band has a vintage sound, look, and feel that transports audiences back in time. Known for creating a lush ambience that is both sophisticated and fun, the band's musical focus is Jazz from the 1920's –1960's Golden Era, with a repertoire consisting of uptempo Swing tunes, Bossa Novas, New Orleans Jazz, Gypsy Jazz and some beautiful Classic Ballads. While singing mostly Great American Songbook Jazz standards, Yamit also tastefully includes a handful of era-specific tunes in Spanish, French and Italian into the performance.

Established as the crème-de-la-crème of Jazz bands in Miami, the ensemble regularly performs within Miami's thriving live music scene and showcases an impressive roster of Miami's top A-list jazz musicians.

YAMIT LEMOINE

Born in Israel, Yamit Lemoine began her training in voice and classical violin at the age of five. She was raised in Toronto, where she developed her love for Jazz, Soul, Blues and Broadway styles. Since then, Yamit continued her vocal training, acquired her Music and Theater education at York University (Toronto), as well as her Audio Engineering education (Miami). While briefly living in New York City, Yamit performed regularly with local Jazz musicians, and upon moving to Miami, she became involved in the world of Musical Theater.

Through multiple talents in the performing arts Yamit has participated at notable events and venues as performer, director, musical director and producer abroad the United States, Canada, The Caribbean and Israel. After writing, directing and locally producing her new musical "Making Angels" in Miami, Yamit decided to return to the Jazz scene.

At the onset of 2014, Yamit conceived her new adventure as vocalist and violinist leading her own Jazz ensemble Vinyl Blvd. Yamit recently finished recording Vinyl Blvd's debut album, scheduled for an international release in 2019.

Yamit And The Vinyl Blvd regularly perform at Miami's most notable upscale establishments, private events and tour internationally for performances abroad.
