Aaron Benjamin McCorkle Sr. was born November 2nd, 1934, in Ridgeway, S.C. Aaron left South Carolina, and moved to Buffalo, N.Y.; there at the age of 21, he formed his first group called, The Travelaires of Buffalo, N.Y. The Travelaires performed in many northern states and sold out crowds. A few years had passed when he decided to move back to South Carolina, to start a family. Aaron continued his love for the Lord's music by continuing to sing in numerous quartet groups. God started to impress upon his heart the art of song writing. For many years, he has been an adamant and faithful member of his choir at church. With his astonishing lyrical integrity, undeniable inventive expression, and a dear cry to God through his distinctive voice, Aaron Benjamin McCorkle Sr. gives God thanks, for God is the true source of his musical abilities. God is the reason for the creation of this album and all others to come.
