I was born on November 27th in Dallas, TX. My grandparents raised me in Marshall, TX until I was six years old while my mother was in college. In that time while my grandparents were raising me they taught me morals and how to live a Christian life. When I was 8 yrs old I moved to Houston with my mother and step-father. Houston was the start of my music dreams. I met my best friend, Kevin, who led me the way through trials and tribulations. Even when I was doing regular hip-hop, he used to tell me all the time to get into gospel hip-hop. Then he passed away of sickle cell. From then on I found my way through God and now here I am.
