Joe-Mike of Joe-Mike and the All Can Band is a singer/songwriter who has dedicated his life's journey to God's music. His musical interest began in Alaska and continues today. He holds a deep passion for the Lord and considers it a privilege and an honor to be able to share the love of the Lord through his music. Like an open book, Joe-Mike shows his heart and walk with God.

Joe-Mike began with the trombone and through the years has moved to many other instruments, settling on synthesizer and bass. Incorporating strings, brass, and woodwinds, he has brought together the acoustic and the electronic to create his own style—sometimes breaking the rules in format.

Joe-Mike's album is a creation of songs that span over twenty years of writing, a lifelong dream that is coming true.
