After opening for Seventh Day Slumber at Freedom Celebration 2005 in California, where there were 18,000 people in attendance, Kaden began to work on their album. It took a while, but in August of 2009, this 5-piece Alternative Rock band released a 5-song EP that quickly grabbed the attention of a younger crowd. Kaden's sound has been described as upfront music that is somewhere in between The Fray and Maroon 5.

One month after the release of their EP, Kaden landed a record deal with major label Tate Music Group. The song "You" is a favorite among many, and it is expected that more of their songs will be favored in their upcoming 11-song album that is scheduled to be released in August of 2010. This album will contain three songs that were recorded and produced by Producer Wyn Davis (No Doubt, Sublime, Guns N' Roses, Pennywise...).

Wyn Davis recently said of Kaden, "Kaden is one of the most promising new bands to come through Total Access [Studios] in a long time. After doing records and watching young bands enter and exit the studio for over 30 years, it is STILL very exciting to work with a band that brings so much love, passion, and skill to what they do."

In May of 2010, three of Kaden's songs were placed into rotation on Alcoa Tennessee's Love 89.1 Radio, and on July 3rd of 2010 they will be opening for the popular band Leeland at this year's Freedom Celebration at Cerritos Stadium in California. Phenomenal talent, well-written songs, and an addicting sound are what make Kaden a promising band. Kaden will continue to be loved by many as they deliver solid tunes with captivating lyrics that leave their listeners wanting more.
