Kelly & Kelly is a family group from Detroit, Michigan. This ensemble consists of siblings Andria Kelly, Ellis Kelly III, Tracey Kelly, and Rachel Kelly.

Kelly & Kelly's roots were sown in November 1987 as a duet with eldest Andria, then 11 years old and 10 year old Ellis III. In 1991, 9 year old Rachel and Tracey, at 11 years old, joined the group singing and playing the drums. Growing up in a Pentecostal home, the Kelly's were exposed to the teachings of the late Bishop Jesse Stacks, the prayers of the late Mother Estella Boyd, and the music of all the gospel legends.

Since February 1996, Kelly & Kelly's rendition of the Star Spangled Banner and the Canadian National Anthem has resounded in multiple NBA arenas. NBA All-Star Shaquille O'Neal first requested they open at the arena for the Orlando Magic in Orlando, Florida. After that soul stirring experience, the quartet has performed for the WNBA, CBA, IHL, and various charity games including "Penny Hardaway's All-Star Charity Game", the "Detroit Pistons Jam Session", and "Slam Jam Sports Basketball Explosion" with NBA All-Star Chauncey Billups. These performances led to Kelly & Kelly being featured in an edition of the NBA magazine Courtside.

Kelly & Kelly continues to perform for various NBA events and numerous religious and political organizations. Some of their performances include the "Arnold Schwarzenegger Inner City Games", NAACP Award Banquets, Bobby Jones Gospel (BET and The Word Network), The Gospel of Music with Jeff Majors (TV One), Babbie's House (NRB), McDonald's Gospelfest, the Special Olympics, and the United States Air Force Communications Agency (AFCA) on the Scott Air Force Base.

Kelly & Kelly signed with Tate Music Group in the summer of 2011 and began work on their 6th project. They are members of Great Nation Prayer Ministries under the leadership of Pastor Ellis Kelly Jr.
