Randy Gordon is a singer/songwriter/worship leader who began his musical career singing in the church choir. He sang his first solo when he was ten years old. He later learned to play piano and trumpet and was involved in every music program in high school. In college, he majored in both vocal music and business. Randy has been a worship leader in four churches and recently has entered into his own full-time ministry, Gordon Ministries, in which he teaches the Word of God and holds worship events. Randy's newest musical project is writing and recording music to all 150 Psalms. He has recently produced an album entitled, My Shepherd –The Living Psalms, through his record label Tate Music Group (TMG).
