Tw2 Of A Kind is a Christian singing duo made up of mother, Sheryl Nahodil and her daughter, April McCarty. Sheryl began her singing career when she was a young girl growing up in Indiana raised on bluegrass and country music. Sheryl married young and says her husband, Victor, has backed her all the way as she has dragged him from, 'pillar to post' with her music. In 1986, she gave birth to her daughter, April. As April grew up, she decided she was going to sing with her mother and thus, their duo began. The sound of Two of a Kind is influenced by the Carter Family and Ricky Skaggs. The two enjoy performing anywhere they can and have been singing professionally for five years and in church for at least twelve. The two say their prayer is to bless listeners through their music.
